GREENIES GIRL BY DEVON ST JOHNS PDF

Cathy, Maggie and 'Shortstuff' are an unlikely trio of women whose lives and work intertwine in the dramatic and fascinating landscape of the human condition. Cathy's domineering mother plays a major role in shaping her life, while her father is the rock she can depend on. Maggie is buoyed by her children as she follows her path, and 'Shortstuff' evolves from shallowness to full womanhood. The women's partners, Pete, Sam and Barney, are along for the ride as the women traverse their way. Follow the wonderful characters in Greenies Girl as they grow and flourish in the busy, challenging and ultimately rewarding world that they inhabit. Devon St. Johns is a retired "snowbird" who lives in Coldwater, Michigan, and spends winters in Florida. The author has completed two other romance-themed books, along with a science fiction novel, in progress. <http://sbpra.com/DevonStJohns>

Couldn't Put it Down

By Jim

I bought the ebook version and found that the book was an easy read. It kept me going, always looking for the next scene. Good book to have when you want to just sit and read. I'm glad I bought it.

Greenies Girl is Good to Go

By Marie Patrice

Very Well written, Very accurate rendition of women in the industrial scene selling against men. Very romantic. Good reading. No objectional sex scenes. I'd let my daughter read it.
